LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, April 29, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States local rains followed by clearing weather, northwesterly winds, higher barometer, and stationary or lower temperature.

THE LATE REV. S. S. ROSSELL.—Rev. S. S. Rossell, one of the most distinguished ministers of the M. E. Church South, whose death on Thursday at his son's residence, near Rectortown, Fauquier county, Va., aged 70 years, has been noted in the Gazette, began preaching in 1828, and filled the first positions in the Baltimore Conference until his health failed, when he retired from the pulpit and lived at Hillsborough, Loudoun county. For several years past, however, he resided with his son at Rectortown. He was at one time pastor of Central M. E. Church South, in Baltimore, and for two years he was presiding elder of the East Baltimore district. He was pastor of churches at Washington, D. C., at Staunton and Harrisonburg, Va., and at Frederick, Md. He was a son of the famous Methodist preacher, Rev. Stephen George Rossell, and inherited many of his father's gifts. He was a man of remarkable fine personal appearance. He was also a born orator, and a scholar of ripe cultivation and original thought. His wife, who died about fifteen years ago, was a sister of Col. Richard H. Dulaney, of Loudoun county. Mr. Rossell was a man of strong Southern sympathies, and at the division of the Baltimore Conference, went with the portion which annexed itself to the M. E. Church South.

THIRD VIRGINIA REGIMENT. The action of the commissioned officers of the Third Virginia Regiment, at their meeting in Lynchburg, Friday last, in selecting Major Francis L. Smith, of this city, to be Lieutenant Colonel and Capt. Nalle, of Culpeper, to be Major of the regiment, has already been given in the Gazette. At the meeting a proposition for a Summer encampment was discussed at length and finally referred to a committee.

The organization of the regiment, as at present constituted, is as follows: Company A, Warrenton Rides, Capt. Gaines; Company B, Culpeper, Mite Men, Capt. Gaines; Company C, Monticello, Capt. Gaines; Company D, Danville, Capt. Gaines; Company E, Lynchburg, Capt. Gaines; Company F, Alexandria, Capt. Gaines; Company G, Fredericksburg, Capt. Gaines; Company H, Capt. Gaines stands 1st, and Capt. McBurney 2d.

THE TALLAPOOSA AT REED & CO'S WHARF. The United States steamer Tallapoosa, on her way to Washington from Fortress Monroe, with Mr. President Arthur, Secretary Chandler, Secretary Lincoln, Admiral Porter, General Hancock, Adjutant-General Drum, Colonel Mitchell, Captain Lachere, and others on board, stopped at Reed & Co's wharf, at this city, about nine o'clock this morning, long enough to land a colored man. The few persons in the neighborhood at the time gathered on the wharf, but they were not gratified with a sight of either the President, General Hancock, or any of the other distinguished passengers.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS CONSIDERED TO THE FLAMES.—The finance committee of the City Council, Mr. John B. Smoot, chairman, together with the members of the Sinking Fund Commission, met at the office of Auditor Brackett last night, and examined and destroyed $20,000 of coupons recently redeemed and cancelled by the Corporation. The smoke from the flames which destroyed these coupons gave rise to the report that the market house was on fire, and caused the alarm about nine o'clock, which brought out the entire fire department.

PROPERTY SALE.—Messrs. R. T. Lucas & Co., auctioneers, sold to-day in front of the Market house on Royal street, two frame houses and lots on Alfred street, between King and Prince, adjoining the Friendship engine house on the south, to Mr. J. T. Creighton, the first for $950, and the other for $655. The house and lot on the north-west corner of Alfred and Prince streets, also put up, was withdrawn for want of a bid of a sufficient amount to warrant its sale.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. CARLIN.—The funeral of James Franklin Carlin, esq., whose death occurred Thursday evening last, took place at three o'clock this afternoon from the late residence of the deceased on Duke street, and was largely attended. Rev. Dr. Pondson, of the M. E. Church, officiated, and the pall bearers were: E. J. Miller, W. H. Phillips and C. C. Berry, of this city, and E. L. Jones, C. C. Kemp and A. W. Luster, of Baltimore.

FOR MATANZAS.—The loading of the brig D. C. Chapman, Capt. George W. Owens, which arrived here from Baltimore to Messrs. W. A. Smoot & Co. the first of the week was completed yesterday, and the vessel was cleared to-day from the Custom House by Messrs. Smoot & Co., with a full cargo of copperage for Matanzas, Cuba. The vessel sailed this afternoon.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION at St. John's Academy ended on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the papers were taken to the University for examination by Prof. Gore. It will be several weeks yet before they are heard from. The candidates all peak in the highest terms of the ability of the examiner and his skill in explaining the questions.

The registration books will be opened at the several voting places in this city May 9.

STEAMBOAT ITEMS.—The steamer W. W. Corcoran, which left the shipyard Thursday afternoon, where she had been for several weeks past undergoing repairs, resumed her trips on the Mount Vernon route yesterday. The Corcoran has been thoroughly overhauled, re-painted and re-fitted, and is now one of the handsomest and most comfortable steamers on the river. With all her flags flying, and a large number of Mount Vernon pilgrims on board, the steamer presented a very handsome appearance as she passed down the river yesterday morning.

The steamer City of Alexandria will resume her trips on the Potomac ferry route between this city and Washington on the first of May. As soon as the City of Washington goes on the route, the steamer Mystic will go to the shipyard for repairs preparatory to going to the lower Potomac.

The steamer tugboat, Capt. Matt Kersy, is being overhauled at the shipyard. This vessel will leave here early in May for Baltimore.

THEO. D. B. C. ENTERTAINMENT. The entertainment to be given at Armory Hall Friday night under the auspices of the Old Dominion Boat Club, promises to be a most pleasing affair. The operetta "Penelope" revised and remodeled is full of funny situations. Mr. Pugh will appear as "Bobby," Mr. Daniel as "Tosser," Mr. Ned Hay as the "Milkman," Mrs. Charles McCarter as "Penelope," Mrs. E. R. True as "Landlady," "The Tower Scene," from Trovatore has been introduced in the operetta, and will be sung here on the occasion for the first time, with Mr. John Pugh as the "Tower," and Mrs. McCarter, as the "Scene." The "Love Duettino," from "Paul and Virginia," is fully worth the price of admission.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. Thomas M. Thornton, of Shelbyville, Ill., has presented to Washington Lodge of Masons, of this city, a handsome engraving of his father, the late Gen. W. F. Thornton. The presentation was made Thursday night at the meeting of the lodge, by Worshipful Master C. E. Stuart, and by resolution, the engraving will be handsomely framed and hung upon the wall of the lodge room. General Thornton was a native of Alexandria, and years ago was one of her most esteemed and prominent citizens. He afterwards went West, engaged in the banking business, was very successful, and died at a ripe old age, beloved and honored by all who knew him.

THE MARKET.—The market this morning, considering the threatening weather, was unusually well supplied. There was very little change in prices. Meats were high, with no prospect for a decline for a month yet. Butter is on the decline. Some of the country people held their prints at 45 cents while others sold willingly at 40 cts. Tomatoes, cymilis, asparagus, cabbage, radishes, onions, &c., sold at last Saturday's quotations. Sixty cents a dozen was the price asked for cucumbers. Fish sold as follows: Shad 30c/40c per pair; herring 12c per dozen; rock per bunch 35c, per pound 8c; white perch 30c/35c per bunch.

PLEASED WITH THEIR TRIP. The Marley Encampment Drill Association, W. W. Sherwood captain, participated in the ceremonies incident to the 63d anniversary of the introduction of the present system of Odd Fellowship into the United States, in Washington, Wednesday last. All the members of the association expressed themselves much pleased with the manner in which they were entertained by their Washington brethren. At night they were invited to a grand banquet, at which many prominent members of the Order were present.

COMPLIMENTARY SERENADE.—The Danville News says: "The Danville Grays last night turned out in uniform and gave a complimentary serenade to their recently married lieutenant, J. Allen Patton, and also to Lieutenant Colonel F. L. Smith, of Alexandria, recently promoted to that office, at the residence of his father-in-law, Major W. T. Sutherland."

RELIGIOUS.—Services of unusual interest will be inaugurated to-morrow by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Pondson, in the M. E. Church, in this city, with sermons at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The singing will be under the direction of the famous Lincoln family, of New York. There will be similar services in the church, every night next week.
